The North Texas Bass Club Challenge was discussed next. Fritz will represent The Colony Bass Club by attend the meeting on March 7, 2011. The top 6 anglers from our club will attend this event.

The club voted on and agreed that The Colony Bass Club would recommend Lake Bob Sandlin for the tournament destination.

The club also talked about a new club challenge hosted by a group called Fun and Sun Company. There are about 12-13 other clubs participating in the challenge. This challenge would be a team challenge in that the top 6 anglers from our club will fish as one team (on 3 separate boats).

Tee Shirts – Anyone wanting a club shirt will need to send in an order form to Mary Ann. Minimum order quantities will be confirmed.

The 2 day tournament at Lake Bob Sandlin in May will be a buddy tournament. If anyone is planning on attending this tournament please let Todd or Natasha know ASAP so that the proper accommodations can be made at Ragan's overnight lodging. Rusty mentioned that the Super 8 Motel is also an option for lodging and will cost about $70.00 per night. Fritz will bring the food and will collect a $7.00 grub fee per person to cover the cost of the food. Jim Pickett offered to cook dinner Saturday night.

David Blackstock updated the club about the dock painting for the city of The Colony. This is set to happen on Monday, March 14, 2011. He will need about 5-6 volunteers to help with this project. David will also talk to the city representative about who will provide the spray on paint for the docks.

Stripper fishing on Lake Texoma is open to everyone. Lynn mentioned that there were still 2 bedrooms left at Grandpappy's and will cost about 145.00. Lynn will bring his turkey fryer to cook fish with. You must make your own lodging accommodations and bring your own boat.

The paper work for the Susan G. Colman fundraiser at Squaw Creek scheduled for October 29th has been completed and turned in. Tracker Marina will donate a boat as a prize and local grocery stores will be asked to donate food to BBQ at the event. The Colony Bass Club will need volunteers to help make this event run smoothly. Jim Pickett suggested that someone from the club accompany him to the meeting with the Susan G. Colman Representatives.

The Kid Fish was voted on by the club to be held on Sunday, May 1st from 1pm – 3pm. Local grocery stores will be contacted to donate food to BBQ at this event. Milton will have this info on the club web site.
